

Tee Off On Breast Cancer

The Pink Steel Dragon Boat team (Breast Cancer Survivor) was formed in honor of Carol Raber who lost her battle with breast cancer in July 2005. Carol was an inspirational woman, friend and mentor to me. In her final months, we spent time together and discussed the formation of a breast cancer survivor team. Upon her death, I actively sought breast cancer survivors to start a team in Carol's name. Hence, Pink Steel was created. The Pink Steel team grew quite quickly over their first season in 2006 and have continued to grow. The Pink Steel girls describe it as a floating support group.

Pink Steel won the BCS National Championship July 25, 2010 in Chattanooga Tennessee!!

This tournament is a celebration of that achievement. The proceeds will go to the continued development of the Pink Steel program and also funding to compete internationally.
